ON TRIAL.

Harriet Hayden vs Joseph C. Collins.

Trespass for an assault upon the Plaintiff Damages laid at $1000.

Briggs for Plaintiff. Sanborn for Defendant.

ROBBY. The dwelling house of Mr. Inso.

Tate, in Steaton, was entered last Tuesday.

between about 8 o'clock, by a couple of scoundrels.

and robbed of about seventy dollars.

male portion of the family were absent at the time.

of a busking, Mrs. Tate being alone in the house.

She was aroused by the breaking in of the door, and took flight upstairs.

where one of the robbers attempted to follow, but she struck him a blow on the head with a carpenter's square, which caused him to retreat.

The money was in a trunk, which they took into the street and broke open. Their departure was probably hastened by the fact that the robbers were not actually vested their seats. They remained at the time (says the Courier) Gazette for the purpose of allowing the people to choose their successors at the October election.

the course of Gov. Willard, who wishes to have the power of appointing to fill these vacancies, is shown to be wholly unwarranted and arbitrary though backed by the Attorney General, who is in the plot. The resigning Judges, who are both Democrats, have published their opinions on the question, declaring that their successors are eligible at this election.

The Governor's action is of a piece with the Democratic measures by which Bright and Patch set to work into the U. S. Senate.

It is a kind of a Democracy that is getting unpopular with the Indians, and is likely to be emphatically repudiated one of these days.

In a cordance with their right and duty as freemen, the Republicans of Indiana met in State Convention at Indianapolis on the 5th inst., for the purpose of nominating candidates to succeed Messrs. Gookin and Stuart, to be voted for next Tuesday.

Their action is according to law and their candidates, though elected a hour ago, are in position as may be their case will certainly hold their place, as against any appointees of the Governor.

The Republican nominees are Horace P. B. and E. S. Terry.

THE BANKRUPT LAW OF 1841.—We find in the N. Y. Papers some statistics showing the amount realized in various parts of the country by the credit of those who have availed themselves of the provisions of the Bankruptcy Act.

The total number of applicants for relief was 33,463. The number of estates named was 20,439.

The amount of debts claimed was $210,231,610 and the amount of property surrendered was $43,957,307. There should have been a dividend therefore, of nearly 10 cents on a dollar, but the amount actually realized fell short of that in most of the States. In some of them it was as follows:

In Southern N. Y. 1 cent to the $100.

In Northern N. Y. 13 1/2 cents to the $100.

In Iowa 4 cents to the $100.

In Michigan 4 cents to the $100.

In Connecticut 40 cents to the $100.

In Maine 4 cents to the $100.

In Massachusetts 4 cents to the $100.

In New Jersey 1 cent to the $100.

In Tennessee 4 cents to the $100.

In Kentucky 30 cents to the $100.

In Maryland 10 cents to the $100.

In Illinois 6 cents to the $100.

In Pennsylvania, New York, Virginia, South Carolina and Alabama and in the U. S. District Court records are sent to show that nothing was realized by the creditors.

An enormous sum has been going the rounds of a paper, that the Steamer T. F. Secor would be withdrawn from the service and placed under the first of this month.

We are authorized or stating that the Secor will in all probability continue her trips during the winter months.—Herald & Co.

THE F. L. S. PRICES OF WHEAT.—A cargo of wheat arrived in Buffalo last week, and the Republics conveyed to a house of exchange at $1 1/2. When it arrived, it was sold at $1 1/2. The consequence was that the price of wheat fell to $1 1/2. The price of wheat fell to $1 1/2. The price of wheat fell to $1 1/2.

A Horrible Narrative.

We cut the following horrible rental from the Chicago Tribune. For the credit of human nature, we hope the tale is exaggerated.

The story told on the authority of the Rev. Samuel Taylor, a graduate of the New York Union Theological Seminary, and for the past nine years pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, Rogersville, East Tennessee, of which Col. Netherland was an elder. He publishes the circular over his own name, and its truth is vouched for and endorsed by elders Jos Hoffman and J. R. Johnson.

Mr. Sawyer's Narrative.

The poor negro had been sold to be sent to Mississippi, and rather than be separated from his wife and children, with no prospect of seeing them again, he escaped to the woods, and lay hid for more than a year. He was found by some hunters, brought in, and delivered to the trader.

It was supposed that he would be sent without any parade to the cotton fields of a more southern State. But he chanced to be employed at the time by a public body, and he was taken to the city, where he was employed by the paragon, the minister's house, to the field just back of the church, where he was whipped naked, tied to four railposts, each arm and each foot to a sapling, blindfolded, and he was beaten with a whip. He was coming, and pinned to the railposts, and he needed but the yoke, or a two line fork over his neck to hush the Mississippians.

By and by, from motives of humanity, spread his clothes under his stomach, to keep him from the rocks and bare ground. A leather strap had been nailed to a wooden handle, and he was made to hold it. He had been a free man, and he was now a slave. He was taken to the city, where he was employed by the paragon, the minister's house, to the field just back of the church, where he was whipped naked, tied to four railposts, each arm and each foot to a sapling, blindfolded, and he was beaten with a whip. He was coming, and pinned to the railposts, and he needed but the yoke, or a two line fork over his neck to hush the Mississippians.
